New annual meeting parking options

LAST YEAR, when I prepared my monthly report for the April 2015 edition of this magazine, I addressed the subject of member parking at the Blue Ridge annual meeting. At that point, a major construction project was in progress in and around our Pickens equipment facility, where we've hosted the meeting for many years. Most of that construction work was completed in time for the meeting. Planned new parking areas, however, were not quite ready for the big day.

I'm pleased to report that won't be the case for this year's gathering. A new, large parking lot, situated on the west side of the equipment facility and bordering West Main Street, awaits members and their families. This parking parcel is immediately adjacent to the equipment facility, therefore affording attendees comparatively easy access to the meeting site. What's more, the building where the meeting-registration process is to take place is only a short walk from where folks will park.

No need to cross streets

Members arriving for the meeting will be directed to this host of parking spaces first. Once this lot is completely full, parking will then proceed at other nearby locations if that becomes necessary. By adding this acreage for parking, Blue Ridge has eliminated the need for most members and families to cross a busy street, while making their way to the meeting facility. This has long been a safety concern for us, and we are glad to have found a solution that works for our members.

As always, the cooperative will offer considerable parking for the disabled. These spaces will again be located on the opposite (east) side of the equipment structure around our main office in Pickens. Golf carts will also be in service to shuttle those with disabilities to and from the meeting site. As with all other aspects of our work here at Blue Ridge, we keep striving to get better at conducting the annual meeting. Once more, we're pulling out all the stops this year, and we hope you'll make plans to be here on April 28. Full details about the meeting are found elsewhere in this month's South Carolina Living.

Another $1-million capital-credit refund

One other item I want to mention is that Blue Ridge will make its 34th-straight yearly payment of capital credits this very month. Checks totaling $1,000,000 will go out to members in the immediate days ahead. With this mailing, the cooperative will have returned more than $24,000,000 in refunds since its founding.

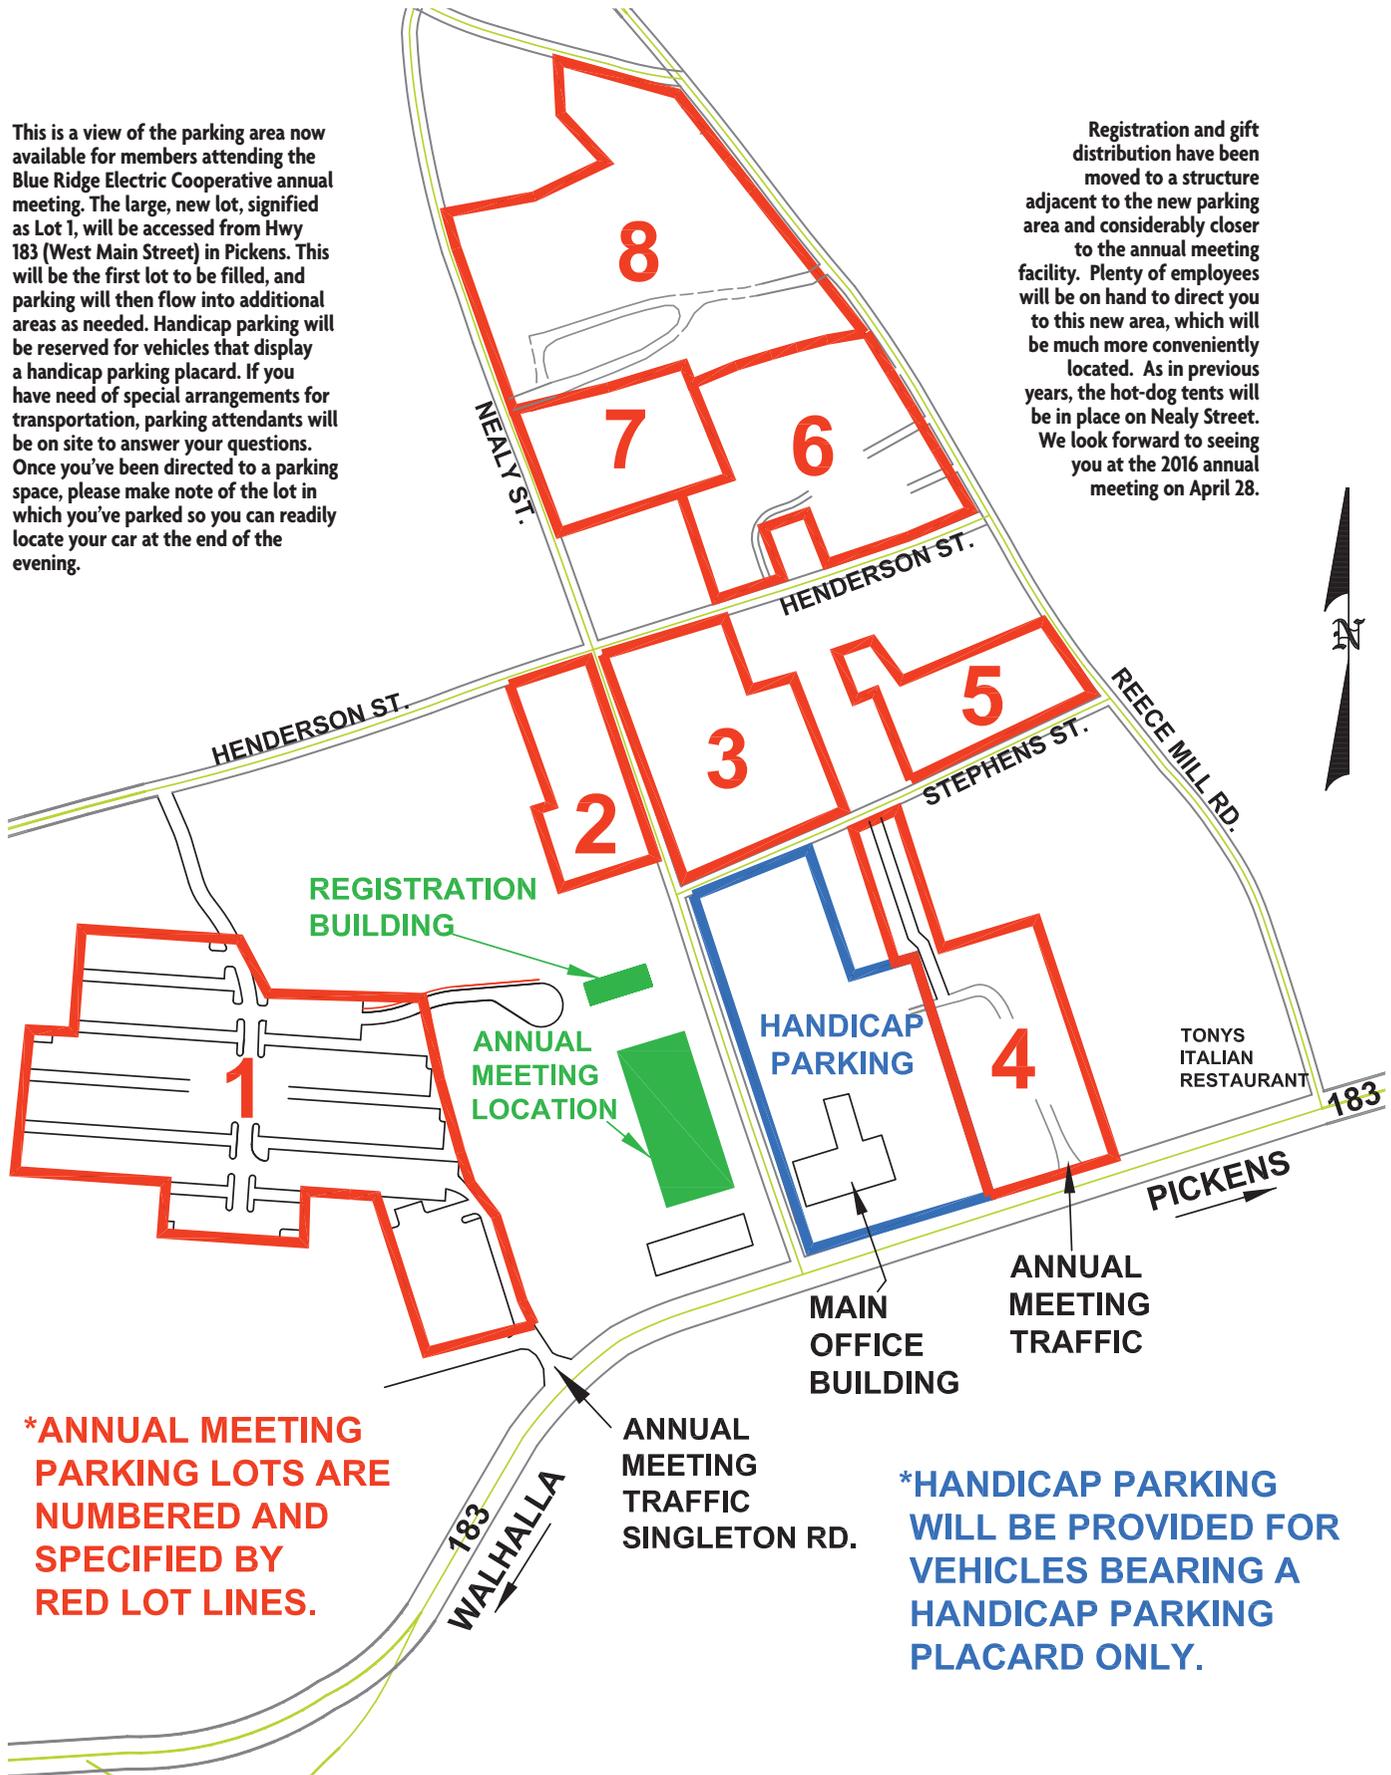

I believe strongly in the regular rotation of patronage capital, as do our board of directors and my management staff. It's a key element of the cooperative business model and one, I can assure you, we're not going to neglect.

Blue Ridge News

This is a view of the parking area now available for members attending the Blue Ridge Electric Cooperative annual meeting. The large, new lot, signified as Lot 1, will be accessed from Hwy 183 (West Main Street) in Pickens. This will be the first lot to be filled, and parking will then flow into additional areas as needed. Handicap parking will be reserved for vehicles that display a handicap parking placard. If you have need of special arrangements for transportation, parking attendants will be on site to answer your questions. Once you've been directed to a parking space, please make note of the lot in which you've parked so you can readily locate your car at the end of the evening.

Registration and gift distribution have been moved to a structure adjacent to the new parking area and considerably closer to the annual meeting facility. Plenty of employees will be on hand to direct you to this new area, which will be much more conveniently located. As in previous years, the hot-dog tents will be in place on Nealy Street. We look forward to seeing you at the 2016 annual meeting on April 28.

*HANDICAP PARKING WILL BE PROVIDED FOR VEHICLES BEARING A HANDICAP PARKING PLACARD ONLY.

Award-winning Gold City Quartet to entertain at the 2016 Annual Meeting

TRUE TO ITS reputation for a night of great entertainment, the Blue Ridge annual meeting will host a line-up of local and award-winning groups on April 28. CEO Charles Dalton is excited about this year's event. "We always want to make sure our members are kept in touch with what has happened and is happening at the co-op, but we also want to make sure they hear some great music while they're here." With the Gold City Quartet as the headliner at this year's meeting, attendees will have an opportunity to hear one of the best gospel groups touring today.

Since 1980, Gold City Quartet has been entertaining gospel music enthusiasts. As a trend-setter in the industry, this down-to-earth group remains grounded in their southern roots, and committed to continue their four-part harmonies that so many have come to love. Despite changes that are common among music groups, Gold City has established their solid foundation in the gospel music world with a history covering more than 35 years.

With more than 60 Singing News Fan awards and a dozen number-one songs to their credit, they have introduced some of the best-known songs in all of gospel music to audiences everywhere. Gold City continues to top the music charts. Most recently, in 2012, "Peter James and John" became another number-one song for them. One of Gold City's most recognizable songs, "There Rose a Lamb," was awarded Southern Gospel Song of the Year in 1993. Among fan favorites are "One Scarred Hand," "Midnight Cry," "John Saw," and "When I Get Carried Away." Their songs continue to inspire, uplift, and entertain audiences today.

Southern Gospel has been described in many ways—harmony singing, family groups, and quartets among others. One thing is for sure, Gold City has remained true to the heritage of the legacy that was started 35 years ago, and they continue to build on that great foundation. The hit songs, stellar vocals, and style that have always been, still are Gold City.

The Annual Meeting entertainment will begin with a performance by "Conservation Theory," a local bluegrass group, followed by Sweet Potato Pie Kids, a group of talented young people that are part of the Young Appalachian Musicians. The Silver Dollar Gang will take the stage next presenting music from their CD's, "Nickle and Dime" and "Leaving Town."

We look forward to seeing you on Thursday, April 28, at the Blue Ridge Electric Co-op Annual Meeting. ☺

Synonymous with setting the standard for male quartets, Gold City has proven they are a mainstay in the world of gospel music. Members of the quartet are Thomas Nalley, Chip Pullen, Daniel Riley, Chris West and Bryan Elliott.

The year in review

observed its 75th anniversary in 2015, and also experienced a year that was crowned with success. All year long, your board of directors stayed informed about the cooperative's many projects and other work activities, and we can salute our employees for another 12 months of progress. What follows are some highlights of that performance.

► Safety & training—one lost-time accident (not the fault of the employee) was recorded, the first in more than four years. Only two such accidents have occurred since early 2009. An ongoing emphasis on good health practices contributed to both employee well-being and a positive group-insurance rating.

► Financial—all goals for 2015 were met and were accomplished with no change in the cooperative's retail rates. The year-end financial outcome also produced another improvement in our equity position. Cost reductions and added efficiencies in 12 different areas of our work translated into estimated savings of $4,518,000 on an annual basis.

► Construction & maintenance—construction on our Golden Corner substation (Oconee County) began and was completed in 2015, while work on the new Landrum station (Greenville and Spartanburg counties) started in the fall and is expected to conclude in April 2016. Coupled with seven major Engineering Work Plan line improvements, these projects all represent a commitment to quality service.

► Service reliability—in addition to the ambitious construction and maintenance program, Blue Ridge began a five-year sectionalizing effort on our system designed to limit both the scope and frequency of any power outages that might occur. In the area of vegetation management, employment of mechanical trimmers to trim on both sides of power lines helped raise the footage cleared annually by more than 30 percent.

► Economic development—the year saw beginnings of several large Blue Ridge-served industrial/commercial developments: two new industrial plants under construction in Anderson County; a planned new industry and a sizable commercial complex in Oconee County; the erection of a new Pickens County plant. Blue Ridge support is helping bring all these projects to fruition. Larger volumes of kwh sales to these C&I locations will help hold down the price of electricity for all co-op members. Also, both members and other area citizens will benefit from the added capital investments and increased job opportunities.

► Member service—the co-op continued to operate four full-service offices in the respective counties of our assigned territory. A fully staffed member service center carried on during normal business hours, so that members could expect to call and talk directly to an attendant, rather than having to navigate an automated telephone menu. Members also had the option of using an expanding array of online services in order to transact business with the co-op. Dispatchers were on site around the clock, seven days a week to field emergency telephone calls and to monitor the system and then react immediately to any problems that might arise.

► Capital credits—another refund of $1,000,000 was made to members in 2015. As part of our new Work Plan and Budget, the board approved an additional $1-million payment for April of this year. Checks will be mailed to those who were co-op members in 1987-88. In each of the last 34 years, Blue Ridge has made a general refund of patronage capital. Through the years, the co-op has returned more than $24,200,000 to members.

► Community service—in 2015, Blue Ridge members realized in excess of $315,000 in savings on prescription-drug purchases through use of the Co-op Connections Card. Accumulated pharmacy discounts since 2009 have now surpassed $3,259,000. Blue Ridge Fest, our annual charity fundraiser, set a new record of $185,000 in net proceeds last year. The event saw another milestone, with more than $2,000,000 raised for scores of local human-help agencies during its first 18 years of existence. Employee volunteers from both the co-op and Blue Ridge Security Solutions are key to the success of this endeavor.

In our view, Blue Ridge is a prime example of how the co-op business model is supposed to function. The fact that this is a member-owned utility motivates all of us, from top to bottom, to provide the very best in service. That's a mission both employees and directors embrace enthusiastically. We plan to maintain that perspective in 2016 and in all the years that follow. ☺

2016 capital refunds are on the way

ON APRIL 14, Blue Ridge Electric Cooperative will refund $1,000,000 in capital credits to its members. Checks will go into the mail on that date and will represent margins earned by the cooperative in previous years of operation. Each check amount represents that member's pro-rata share of the net earnings during the years covered by the payment.

In each of the last 34 years, Blue Ridge has returned capital credits to its members. Through the years, more than $24 million has been forwarded to recipients.

According to Blue Ridge President and CEO Charles Dalton, refunding patronage capital is a key element of the cooperative business model. "As a member-owned organization, we believe it's good business practice to employ regular rotations of capital credits. These payments represent the return of a portion of the investment members have made in the cooperative through their purchases of electricity. We take pride in fulfilling this responsibility."

Great Times Great Causes—Blue Ridge Fest is May 6

FOR A NIGHT of great music, shagging, and delicious food, surrounded by hundreds of classic cars, Blue Ridge Fest 2016 is where you'll want to be on Friday, May 6. Now in its 19th year, this annual charity fundraiser attracts thousands of attendees each year who come for GREAT TIMES to help GREAT CAUSES.

This year, Blue Ridge Fest welcomes three great groups to the stage beginning at 6 p.m. Crowd favorite Jim Quick and Coastline will kick off the evening, followed by Jimmy Beaumont and the Skyliners, with Jay and the Americans closing out the night. You'll hear Top 40 hits from the '50s, '60s, and '70s, along with beach classics that are as popular as ever today. Blue Ridge President and CEO Charles Dalton says he's excited about this year's entertainment lineup: "If you want to take a step back in time, when life was slower and music was a big part of everyone's weekend, this is the place to be. We've made it our quest to seek out those groups that perform the hits that reawaken those wonderful memories, and we're bringing some outstanding entertainers to upstate South Carolina again this year. Our event has given more than $2 million to local charities, and we look forward to another successful outcome."

Blue Ridge Fest continues to attract thousands, receive support from 100-plus sponsors, and give the proceeds of this employee-volunteer event to local charities. We invite you to come, and we encourage you to bring your friends and neighbors to the Blue Ridge Fest Beach Night/Cruise-In on May 6 in Pickens. ## Fest sponsors give generously

Many loyal sponsors make Blue Ridge Fest a priority year after year, while others are joining us for the first time. We appreciate their contribution to the success of Blue Ridge Fest, and thank them for responding so generously to the needs in our local areas.
